PUT SWITZLER ON C. C. BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Election of Bruce Switzler, well known local business man, connected with the Rankin Department store, to succeed Stanley Clem, resigned, as a director; consideration of committee reports, and the reading of communications, featured today's board meeting of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce.

W. H. Spurgeon Jr., chairman of the annual meeting committee, reported that this year's event, held at St. Ann's Inn, was a success. President O. A. Haley suggested that, instead of making it a banquet event, it should take the form of a picnic at which the chamber should act as host to the entire membership. Suggestions were advanced that an affair of this kind be given on the lawn of St. Ann's Inn to celebrate the dedication of the new chamber building.

New Building Progress
J. C. Wallace, chairman of the new building committee, stated that satisfactory progress is being made on the new building and it is expected to have the structure ready for occupation on or about June 1.

Hearty co-operation on the part of local manufacturers in furthering the aims of the chamber was reported by H. S. Samuel, who stated that a number of industrial concerns are lining up with the chamber.

The imperative need of making prompt provision for the municipal band was stressed by Attorney Clyde Downing, chairman of the band finance committee, who was authorized to confer with other civic organizations as to the best possible means of financing the band until it secures aid by city funds. It was recommended that representations be made at once to the city council that the municipal band be considered a civic enterprise and that ample provision for its support be included in the city budget for next year.

Names Special Committee
President Haley appointed a special committee, composed of Carl Mock, Mayor John W. Tubbs and Dr. F. W. Slabaugh, county purchasing agent, to arrange for advertising in the Shriner convention program, now under preparation.

The following named new members were elected:
William J. Ruch, title company;
H. R. Mahoney, title company; L. L. Archibald, life insurance; W. Brown, photographer; H. J. Schoet-

Better Than Calomel

Thousands Have Discovered
Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel trouble with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place. Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "tired" and "heavy." They "clear" the brain and "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c.

Spring Slippers that Herald the Season

WITH all the newness and beauty of the season come the Spring slippers of Cousins. Beautiful they are, and different, too, showing innovations in the unexpected twist of a strap, in the delicate tracery of one leather to adorn another, in lacelike edgings. And, too, there is nothing newer—for these styles are only just being shown in the Fifth avenue shops—and, in this city, exclusively by Watkins.

Won't you come in and try them on?

Many mothers have learned this
"better breakfast" secret—have you?

MOTHERS, more and more, are coming to sense the health importance of "better breakfasts." But a better breakfast need not mean a get-up-earlier, harder-to-get breakfast. Not when Carnation MUSH is pantry-handly! For, in five minutes, these creamy white flakes are truly formed into a tempting, tasteful energy-breakfast.

Carnation MUSH is all energy because it is all wheat. We take white Sonora wheat—specially selected. We wash it. We clean it. We remove only the outer husk of the wheat—nothing else. We keep all the bran, all the minerals, all the health-value. Then we steam and roll the golden grains into crisp, wafer-thin flakes—

So that you can have them for your "better breakfast" tomorrow morning—and have them piping-hot and jiffy-quick.

Committee from Bureau Seeking Fair Locations

The committee appointed by President S. W. Stanley, of the Orange County Farm Bureau, to select a permanent fair site, requested today that suitable sites be submitted. The committee is composed of J. A. Smiley, West Orange, chairman; C. B. Henry, Garden Grove, and J. B. Eaton, Anaheim.

The site must be located near the center of population, that is, between Santa Ana and the Los Cabin, consist of 20 acres or more, be reasonably priced, have plenty of water, and be near transportation and sewage facilities.

It is expected that the 1925 county fair, in September, will be held on the site which the farm bureau is now seeking.

Following selection of a site by the committee, the county board of supervisors will be asked to purchase the land.

The WELL-DRESSED MAN
By BEAUNASH
Correct Clothes To Meet The Obligation of Every Occasion

Your Golf Get-Up

When there is a nip in the air and "four hole shoes and my big boots go tramping over the heather," the young man's and middle-aged man's and old man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of bobby, bogle and bunker. With the spread of sport and the development of our country life to parallel that of England, it is natural that designers should leave town clothes, which have been astonishingly perfected, to devote their ingenuity to garments for pleasure and leisure. Today, all roads lead to the open road, the greens, the nets, the suburban club. Knickerbockers, which once provoked snickers, have become as dignified as a church-pew and as standard as trousers. However, the freer-and-easier comradeship of sport is prone to make us too clothes-careless now-a-days, just as we used to be too clothes-conscious. That which, in a woman, would be sweet disarray is, in a man, mere untidiness.

In England and Scotland, they do not play golf in shirt-sleeves, nor in a jersey or jumper as they term it, and in a sweater, as we call it. They would feel ill at ease, especially if women were about. Indeed, to wear your coat, be it a golf jacket or a club coat, amounts almost to a religious rite with Britons. They subscribe to the creed of the French that one must suffer for the sake of polite usage, and they manfully take their punishment with their heads up and their coats on.

Whether you play with your coat on or off, and whether you go around in 72 or merely cut grass, you have to own a golf jacket to match your knickers. The trend of style during the last two years was toward studiously plain jackets, as a reaction from the too ornately pleated, belted and flapped styles that had come into vogue. Today, however, one recognizes that a country jacket must be differently cut from a town jacket, and that a correctly golf jacket must permit unhindered arm-swing and shoulder-play, even if it takes pleats to do it.

Thus, the three-button type of jacket, portrayed in the accompanying sketch, with its four-flapped, buttoned pockets and some-back, is again smart and worn by many "crack" players. The collar is broad and low. The lapels are wide and peaked or half-peaked. The front is cut away. The patch pocket of the pouch or game type are purposely made full and deep to convey the sportsmanlike look.

THE SEVEN BEST REVOLVERS

The seven best revolver shots among Orange county peace officers, including policemen from virtually every city in the county, will be selected next Tuesday, and will be officially named the Orange County Pistol team. This was decided last night at the second meeting of the newly formed Orange County Peace Officers' association, held at the auditorium, Huntington Beach.

An elimination contest will start at 10 a. m. Tuesday, at the National Guard range, near Orange County park, for officers in the northern part of the county, and officers from the south will shoot during the afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock.

The men holding the highest scores will be automatically chosen to represent Orange county in proposed shooting contests with police officers from various cities in Southern California.

Last night's meeting of the association was attended by approximately 50 officers. The principal address of the evening was delivered by Santa Ana's city attorney, Bert West, who spoke on "Cooperation Between Peace Officers and Prosecuting Attorneys."

The meeting opened with a musical program by Huntington Beach artists and included humorous readings by Miss Ruth Miller and vocal numbers by J. R. Gallian. The orchestra of "Captain's Inn," of Seal Beach, played.

Ed French, under-sheriff, acted as chairman of the evening, and District Attorney A. P. Nelson, Coronado, was in charge of the program.

Low Blodgett, city attorney, Huntington Beach, was accepted into the association as honorary members. Chief Wilson, of the Fullerton police force, was appointed to the finance committee.

The next meeting of the association will be held in Fullerton the night of May 6.

WOMAN CONDEMNS CHILD LABOR

Child labor was condemned by Mrs. C. R. Harrison, Anaheim, one of the speakers at last night's meeting of the Orange County Committee of Social Work, at Ketter's cafe. Mrs. Harrison was formerly state factory inspector in Minnesota, one of the first states to enforce laws regarding child labor.

The speaker told of conditions found in laundries, flour mills, cigar box, garment and shoe factories, of the monetary cost of work and of the methods used to speed up production.

"The effects are shown in the loss of education and the dulling of the sensibilities to appreciation of beauty," said Mrs. Harrison. "Many physically bad effects result from the overstrain, and lack of outdoor exercise. The moral effect of child labor is shown from the fact that of 5000 cases of delinquency in Minnesota, more than one-half were found to be among child workers."

Mrs. Harrison outlined the history of the movement to secure a national law prohibiting labor by children.

Dr. Leila Beebe, bureau of child hygiene, state department of health, spoke on the relation between education and living conditions during the period between childhood and citizenship. As a slogan, she suggested, "Every home a preventorium."

"We need definite aims for better citizenship and earnest concerted effort to reach those ideals," she said.

Reports from the meeting of the State Tuberculosis association, in Los Angeles, recently, were given by Miss Florence Ames. Mrs. Amelia Meagher and Miss Beatrice Woodward, Miss Woodward, who is a field worker for the association, outlined briefly growth of the association from 1904, when a Danish postmaster conceived the plan of designating a Christmas seal which would also serve a humanitarian purpose.

At the business meeting of the organization, the members voted to affiliate with the State Conference of Social Work and send a delegate to the state convention at Sacramento in May.

Presenting a brilliant spectacle, an Easter pageant was given in the First Methodist church last night before an audience which filled the auditorium to overflowing.

Much commendation was heard on the interpretation of the scenes depicting the Bible's story of the resurrection. In the setting of old Jerusalem, the story of the first Easter was unfolded by a cast of 60 Santa Ana folk.

The first scene pictured the morning of the third day when news was spread of the resurrection of Christ after the crucifixion. Christian followers, with doubts overcome, felt joyous over the triumph. Even the children rejoiced.

Interwoven was the story of the Roman centurion, who aided in the execution at Calvary. He experienced a change of heart and repented, casting in his lot with the Christians. According to tradition, the Roman soldier showed the courage of his convictions by dying as martyr to the Christian faith.

Ruel Young played the part of the centurion. The entire pageant seemed imbued with the real spirit of the pageant. Parts as disciples were taken by C. E. Prior, John Paul Lee, R. S. Matthews, W. A. Taylor, H. W. Goodwin, H. W. Guthrie, E. J. Eldenour, C. E. Kellogg, J. B. Head, R. F. Canterbury and R. R. Lutes.

Other important characters were interpreted by Miss Dorothy Hurd, Miss Lorena Cuddy, Mrs. F. Pinuf, Mrs. H. Hayes, Miss Celestine White, James H. Hughes, A. H. Thael, Kenneth H. Burnes, Gale Harmon, William Schleicher, Lloyd Smith, W. R. Freeman and R. D. Garner.

Large choruses greatly enhanced the effect of the pageant. Parts as Jerusalem boys and girls were played by George Munro, Jeanette Lutes, Thomas Kistinger, Floyd Blower, James Noe, Isabel McCormac, Harold Lutes, Doris Bolles, Margaret Nunn and Joy Townsley.

Among others who enacted roles were Mrs. Helen Branderberry, Mrs. Allie Fritz, Miss May Beamer, Miss Eva Ramsey, Miss Jean Ramsey, Wray, Miss Mildred Wray, Miss Evelyn Wray, Miss Marjorie Blower, Miss Irene O'Brien and Miss May Adams.

2 NEW ANGLES ON COMMUNITY HOSPITAL OPEN

At least two new angles to the Community hospital situation have developed within the past few days.

One is a movement started by northern Orange county men, including several prominent physicians, to unite the several communities of the county—Fullerton, Anaheim, Orange and Santa Ana—and build the proposed new hospital on the Orange County farm—that is, immediately adjacent to the County hospital. This plan contemplates the probable gift of the land to the Hospital association by the county, or at least a lease for 99 years at a nominal sum. It also contemplates the selling of stock in the Hospital association in the other communities in amounts in proportion to that of Santa Ana.

The other new angle is for the people to vote bonds and have the county build a County Community hospital on the county farm, to be operated in conjunction, or at least in cooperation, with the County hospital.

"So far as hospital operation and administration goes," said Dr. Harry Zaiser, superintendent of the County hospital, "either of these plans is entirely feasible, and in fact quite attractive. I believe that if the Community hospital were located on the county farm, and immediately adjacent to the County hospital, many ways of economic and efficiency cooperation could be found. Whether this Community hospital, so located, should be owned by the county as a whole or owned by the community hospital association would make little or no difference, so far as operation or administration are concerned."

Those proposing the location of a new Community hospital on the county farm, either county owned or association owned, claim that the location is ideal for at least Santa Ana, Orange and Anaheim, and that it is good for Fullerton and the rest of the northern part of the county, and of course it is regarded as fully as good for the western and southern part of the county as a more central location than the city Santa Ana would be.

It is claimed that either of these plans would enable us to have one of the finest community hospitals anywhere in the country, and that by reason of its magnitude, with relatively small overhead expense, and with the cost of site eliminated, the per patient cost could be kept well within the means of the average citizen. If the county should build a hospital, financing it by bond issue, the per patient cost could be brought down to the minimum, by providing for the payment of the bonds by general taxation, thus in effect making the Community hospital in a large measure, an endowed institution. Although several of the prominent physicians in the northern part of the county are in favor of some such plan as has been outlined in the preceding paragraphs—indeed, Dr. H. D. Newkirk of Anaheim, president of the Orange County Medical association, is known to be the leader of the movement for the building of inter-community hospital on the Orange County hospital farm, and that H. A. Johnston of the Johnston Wickett Clinic, of Anaheim, is also known to be in favor of such a plan—many laymen expressed themselves as heartily in accord with the idea of building the Community hospital on the county farm.

One of the arguments of laymen in support of some such plan is that it would get the hospital under neutral management. These laymen argue that a community hospital should not be entirely under the control of physicians. They think that a board of directors composed of laymen entirely, with an advisory board of physicians, or at least a board of directors composed of, say, six laymen and three physicians, would be the ideal form of management and control.

In the meantime the new directors of the Santa Ana Community hospital have gone on record as being determined to get into action and build some kind of a hospital without delay.

Flagg to Publish 1926 County Directory

For the first time, an Orange County organization is to prepare and publish the official Orange County Directory. It will be our object to make the 1926 book of names a model of usefulness—a credit to the county and ourselves.

Eight years of effort have brought our printing business to a commanding position in the county. We must have pleased quite a large number of buyers of printing from the start, for we have been forced to add new items to our equipment from time to time until our shop, in our own building on Broadway, will stand comparison with any in the state. Facilities for handling large jobs have come to us as a natural result of a growing business. The 1926 Orange County Directory will be, so far as we can make it, the best to date.

In 2 Months Without Diet, Exercise, Massage or Reducing Girdles.

New French Method Explained by Mme. Elaine of Paris and New York.

"I did not have to go through strenuous exercises, nor rub myself with absurd creams, which generally put on flesh instead of taking it off. I did not wear weakening garments, nor torture myself with diets was fortunate enough while in Europe to find out the secret with which millions of French actresses and beautiful women of Paris keep their figures slender. Not only did I easily and gradually lose 50 pounds, but the reduction was lasting, as I have never gained a pound since stopping the treatment. I feel and look years younger, and my health has greatly improved with this wonderful discovery. No matter how fat you are, you may do just as I did, and easily lose a few pounds every week without any danger. Social Gayeties Will Mark Post-Lenten Season

The little lull in social affairs which has coincided with the observance of Holy Week, promises to be the usual lull before the storm, according to a glance at the calendar of the social set of the city for immediately after Easter will come a series of smart affairs running the gamut of the teas, dinners and dances.

Of course there will be the usual number of delightful functions at Santa Ana Country Club where the members will enjoy a formal dinner dance on the night of Wednesday, April 15, and an informal dancing party on the night of April 29. Reservations for the earlier event must be made with Mr. Roller not later than Tuesday.

Next week promises a succession of smart events beginning with the bridge luncheon which Mrs. H. B. Van Dien and Mrs. G. J. Daley are sponsoring at the Country club on Thursday the sixteenth. On the following evening, April 17, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Oliver will welcome many guests at an evening of dancing.

Saturday afternoon, April 18, will bring another form of social entertaining, a tea-musical which Mrs. Fannie Lash, Mrs. Thomas Willis Jr., Mrs. J. Raymond Mayer Jr. and Miss Daphne Goss are presenting at the Lash home, 220 Cypress street.

Of the hostess group, all are prominent in the city's social and musical circles with the exception of Miss Goss who is a charming Los Angeles girl and who will be remembered for her delightful share in Ebells programs as she has appeared as a reader upon different occasions.

Nor will the tea-musical end the gayeties for that week for on Saturday night Mrs. David Burton Carmichael, a talented young matron who scored a success by her artistic work in the Community Players' greatest artistic triumph, "The Yellow Jacket," is entertaining for one of the spring brides, Miss Lois Wiggins.

Mrs. Carmichael is having an evening of bridge at her home, 1311 North Garnsey street where a number of Miss Wiggins' closer friends will be greeted. The latter is to be one of the most feted brides of the season, according to hints of pre-nuptial affairs to be given in her honor at the spring advances. Her engagement to Robert Jameson Corbett was announced formally the first week of the new year.

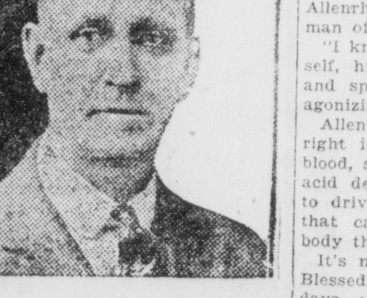

Pan-Hellenic Society To Meet Monday
A group of four hostesses will entertain the Pan-Hellenic society Monday night at the April meeting when the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. George Briggs at 644 North Broadway will be opened to the college women forming the society.

Mrs. Howard Timmons, daughter of the home, Mrs. William L. Deimling, Mrs. Maurice Enderle and Mrs. Robert Northcross will form the little group of matrons who are entertaining. The session will begin at 7:45 o'clock and members are asked to telephone Mrs. Timmons at 1372J as to their intentions of being present.

Aid Society
Adorned with many spring blossoms arranged artistically, the home of Mrs. S. P. Sorenson on South Van Ness street yesterday offered friendly welcome to members of St. Peter Lutheran Aid society who enjoyed an interesting business session as well as a pleasant social gathering.

The Rev. George Pauschert opened the program with the missionary lesson on "Establishing the Church in Japan." Among interesting announcements was that of the meeting of the Federated Aid societies at Mt. Calvary church, Twenty-seventh and Western avenue, Los Angeles on May 13 when many local members will be in attendance. The next meeting of the local society will be on May 6.

During the social hour following the program, Mrs. Sorenson assisted by Mrs. W. P. Sorenson, served delicious sandwiches, cake and coffee to the large number of members assembled.

Interest Increases In Exhibit Plans For Ebells Tea

In response to the first announcement of a plan to combine a bag, rug and lampshade exhibit with the usual Monday tea of the Ebells society, the sponsors of the event, Mrs. William L. Deimling and her general committee chairman, Mrs. W. H. DeWolfe, were delighted to receive assurance of the cooperation of owners of handsome articles who will gladly display their treasures.

One of the first responses came from Mrs. Arthur May who will show a very handsome and very old beaded bag, which in turn was copied from one still more ancient. Her immediate response to the suggestion opened a new line of thought to the hostesses and they hope there will be many others who have family heirlooms and will be generous enough to place them on display for the enjoyment of others.

The clubhouse will be open at 8 o'clock Monday morning to receive articles for the exhibit, and Mrs. DeWolfe today announced that if there were some who couldn't arrange to deliver their articles at the clubhouse on Monday, members of the committee would be happy to receive them at any time and would care for them in their own homes until the day of the affair. Mrs. DeWolfe's telephone number is 1759 and she will be glad to confer with anyone in regard to the event.

Birthday Party For Happy Little Maid
A very little maid was made extremely happy last Saturday when her sixth birthday was celebrated in pleasing fashion by her mother. The small birthday honoree was Gertrude Bramley and Mrs. Bramley asked eleven lassies to their pleasant home at 706 Cypress street, to spend the afternoon in such games as children love.

Upon arriving, each child was presented with a gay paper hat and a bright balloon which added to the merriment. All manner of games followed in rapid succession until the refreshment hour when little Miss Gertrude presided over a table charming in rosy decorations of place cards, Easter eggs, Easter bunnies and a gorgeous cake with half a dozen pink candles. Even the ice cream was rosy pink to further the pretty color scheme.

Before leaving the little girls presented Gertrude with many pretty gifts to add to the pleasures of her birthday party.

Household Economics
On Tuesday, April 14, the members of Ebells' fifth Household Economics section will enjoy the hospitality of Mrs. Edward Walker, Mrs. Frank Preston and Mrs. Floyd Spencer who will present a 1 o'clock luncheon at the clubhouse.

At the March meeting of the section, plans were made to hold a garment shower for the Day Nursery and each member promised to add a little frock to the supply. All are reminded of the plan as the garments will be received at Tuesday's meeting. Members who are unable to be present, are asked to telephone Mrs. Walker at 2620-W.

Great Offer To Chronic Rheumatic Sufferers
Money Back If Allenru Fails To Do You More Good Than Anything You Ever Used.

quickly drive every trace of rheumatism from your body. I know this because I was crippled for years and many times was unable to work, and Allenru made a well, robust, healthy man of me."

"I know because since I cured myself, hundreds have taken Allenru and speedily rid themselves of this agonizing disease."

Allenru is no laggard; it starts right in at once; it gets into the blood, searches out the poisonous uric acid deposit and in two days starts to drive the concentrated impurities that cause rheumatism, out of the body through the natural channels. It's marvelous how quickly it acts. Blessed relief often comes in two days—even in cases where the suffering has been most painful and traces have disappeared in a few days.

James H. Allen, of 24 Forbes St., Rochester, N. Y., the discoverer of Allenru, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenru decisively conquers this worst of all diseases. With this understanding he has instructed C. S. Kelley Drug Co. and druggists everywhere to guarantee it in every instance.—Adv.

Theater Plan Changed To Surprise Party For Birthday

Plans for an evening at the theater in company with a little group of friends, were suddenly altered by Miss Geneva Moore last night, when she stopped according to arrangement, at the home of her close friend, Miss Louella Reed, 1114 Walnut street, only to find the party much larger than she anticipated, and everything in readiness to celebrate her birthday.

The surprise was sprung when lights were turned on to reveal the group of friends all in readiness to call birthday greetings to Miss Moore and later to join in a lively program of music and games. Miss Reed was assisted in her party plans by her mother, Mrs. George Reed who aided in introducing the amusing games.

Carnations and sweet peas were the attractive flowers used to adorn the home. At a late hour the young hostess and her mother served dainty refreshments featuring a birthday cake gleaming with the requisite number of candles. The guests took the opportunity to shower Miss Moore with many lovely gifts.

Enjoying the hospitality of Miss Reed and Mrs. Reed were the honoree, Miss Geneva Moore, the Misses Clara Kellogg, Ruth Stephenson, Florence Urbine, Dorothy Jessee, Gladys Stoneman, Helen Neff, Edith Collins, Messrs Clyde Gould, Morton Stephenson, Theodore Jessee, Birchard Moore and Hubert Prior.

Social Club Holds Friendly Session
One of yesterday's pleasant affairs was the meeting of the Calumet Social club as guests of Mrs. Marie Mears, Mrs. Maude Miller and Mrs. Frances Moulton who joined in entertaining at the Mears home at 1430 North Baker street.

The hostess group had an unusual floral decoration in the massed lilacs used with artistic effect. Guests devoted the afternoon to making cases for the valmont silver and to discussing plans for an all-day meeting on Friday, April 17. Mrs. Jennie Silkwood of 333 West Pine street, offered her home for the event and each member will add one prepared dish to the surprise dish dinner at noon. The day will be spent in piecing a quilt to be completed later.

After completing plans for the affair, yesterday's little group enjoyed a pleasant refreshment interval when the hostesses served a dainty tea menu. Those present in addition to the three hostesses were Mesdames Nannie Reed, Emma Kellogg, Marg Donavan, Edith Ellison, Jane Winter, Bertha Dugdale, Alice Gay, Marie Lindquist, Carrie Adams, Bertha Dixon, Muriel Pope, Minnie Johnson, and five visitors, Mesdames Alice Roister, Mamie McDonnell, Jennie Silkwood, Bert Bodell and John Swartzbaugh.

Varied Program For S. A. Woman's Club Meeting
A program of varied features held the attention of Santa Ana Woman's club members Tuesday when they were pleasantly entertained at the home of Mrs. Jennie Purkee, 720 Minter street. Mrs. Durkes used Mamam Cochet roses and bowls of sweet peas in a lovely decorative effect of rose pinks to adorn her home for the event.

The usual procedure was followed in the program with the club collect following the opening ode and the president, Mrs. Lovisa Leslie in the chair. An interesting business decision was to purchase the book, "The American Government" by Frederick J. Haskins, for the use of the club members. Mrs. Howard Clemens, recording secretary and Mrs. C. H. Stanley, corresponding secretary were both absent on account of illness, to the regret of the members.

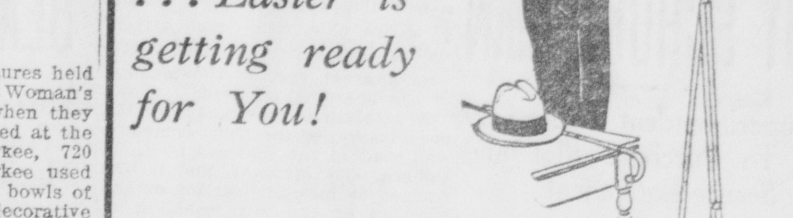

Mrs. Henry Diers, treasurer, gave a concise and interesting report of the club's finances, showing an excellent standing. The program which followed, opened with a travelogue by Mrs. Walter Myers who made her hearers see the interesting mining country and the scenic wonders of Arizona as she described an extended motor trip taken recently by herself and Mr. Myers.

Articles of wide general interest were then read by different members among the subjects touched upon being the proposed Open Age law, the Third Degree law, the famous eagles' nest at Vermilion, Ohio, the evolution of plant life, music in the public schools and other matters of varied import. Responding to an enthusiastic request, Mrs. Walter Leonard gave the enjoyable reading, "The Two Portraits."

The next meeting will be held at the J. T. Tompkins home, 711 South Sycamore street, Tuesday, April 21 and a full attendance of members is desired as it will be the annual election of officers. frimva, (&9 e cr-shuglto-n-1? u

PLAYGROUND AT ORANGE URGED BY SCHOOL MAN

Superintendent Urges City To Purchase Plot and Secure Equipment

ORANGE, April 9.—Declaring that a summer playground is an absolute necessity to the school children of Orange, George Sherwood, superintendent of schools, and president of the Orange Lions club, proposed yesterday, at the noon luncheon of the latter organization, that it endorse a movement to furnish the children of the city with proper means of vacation recreation.

Mr. Sherwood pointed out that during the summer months, when school is not in session, the equipment on the school playgrounds is dismantled and removed, leaving no satisfactory recreation center for the children.

The plan proposed by Mr. Sherwood, and endorsed by the Lions club, is to obtain a satisfactory plot of land and equip it with playground apparatus of all kinds, and in that manner provide a place for school children to entertain themselves when not in school.

It was decided, after some discussion, to hold a public meeting Tuesday night, April 14, in the intermediate school here, and to find, at that time, what the public sentiment is in regard to the matter, and in what way to finance the project.

Coach Burg, of the Orange high school, and Dr. Wallace spoke to the club yesterday on the need of physical training in high schools. Coach Burg, as an example of the work he is promoting in the school here, stated that the average gain in weight during one semester of school among students taking physical training, is 11 pounds, and in height, one and one-half inches.

Fire Department Re-organization At Orange Urged

ORANGE, April 9.—Discussion of the organization, in Orange, of a new fire department, to consist of a fire chief, two truck drivers and a company of 18 men, occupied a great part of the meeting of the board of trustees.

A resolution, providing for the organization of the new company, was read to the trustees by L. F. Coburn, city attorney, and it was decided to take final action on the question at the next meeting of the board.

The fire chief and drivers are to be selected by the board of trustees, according to the proposed ordinance, and the company of 18 men will be recruited by the chief, with the final approval of the board.

Damage to the clothes of firemen, would be paid by the city, according to the resolution. Any city ordinance conflicting with the proposed one, would be repealed.

The resolution makes the fire chief responsible for the discipline of the company and his orders, during a fire, must be obeyed not only by the firemen, but also by private citizens. Private citizens refusing to follow the chief's instructions would be guilty of a misdemeanor and punished upon conviction.

ALLEGED THIEF FORGETS DATE OF OWN TRIAL

ORANGE, April 9.—Professing ignorance as to the date that has been set for his trial and declaring that he had made arrangements for an attorney to appear in court in his behalf on Friday, John Mangies, who was to have been tried in Recorder's court here yesterday on charges of stealing 100 pounds of avocados and of destroying an avocado tree owned by W. M. Popplewell, of Villa Park, was returned to the Santa Ana jail, and the date of his trial changed to April 15.

Mangies is awaiting trial in Santa Ana on a similar charge, and was in the jail in that city when arrested on the complaint of Mr. Popplewell.

Mangies is accused of having stolen the fruit the latter part of last month from the Popplewell orchard, an avocado tree. It is alleged that the stolen fruit was disposed of in Los Angeles.

BOARD RECALL PETITIONS AT BEACH PUSHED

Entire Membership of City Trustee Body Said to Be Included

NEWPORT BEACH, April 9.—If petitions now in circulation are sufficiently signed Newport Beach, which includes within its municipal boundaries that section known as Balboa, will be in the grip of another bitter factional fight with all its attendant animosities, it was declared today.

The petitions ask that a special election be called at which time the people shall be given the opportunity of recalling the entire board of city trustees.

It has not been definitely decided by supporters of the city administration what the alleged reason for the proposed recall is but the circulation of the petitions was said not to have come as a complete surprise.

Recall movements are under way in Huntington Beach and have been rumored as looming in Fullerton.

Urge Dieticians To Prescribe For County Children

SEAL BEACH, April 9.—"We need a county dietician to give us instruction in the proper foods and combinations of foods for children of different ages; let us feed them right and spare the spansks," admonished Mrs. C. C. Violett of Garden Grove in an address on "Child Welfare" Tuesday at a meeting of the Parent-Teacher association in Seal Beach.

Mrs. Violett reviewed the first efforts made to employ a public nurse and the opposition encountered. Consent was finally obtained with the provision that the three months' salary be provided from funds of the Red Cross. An epidemic of head infection among the Mexican children forced R. P. Mitchell, county superintendent, to appeal to the county nurse for aid and settled the question of the desirability of such an assistant. Now there are fourteen public nurses in Orange county.

Child clinics have been established in Santa Ana, Fullerton, La Habra, Costa Mesa, Newport and Huntington Beach.

Referring to the boy problem that develops when the teens are reached, Mrs. Violett recommended that fathers not only make chums of their boys but also that they know the "gang," winning their friendship as well.

OIL LEASES NEAR COSTA MESA SOLD

COSTA MESA, April 9.—Renewal of activities on leases southeast and southwest of here were seen today by local residents with the securing of oil leases by the Rosenberg Oil company, of Huntington Beach, from the Interstate Oil company in the southeast quarter and the leasing of additional land from F. H. Strowbridge, southwest of town. The Interstate lease, which was assumed yesterday by the Rosenberg people, is said to comprise 70 acres. Thirty acres were leased from Strowbridge.

The change in the lease came to the attention of local people when the Rosenberg Oil company applied to the Newport Mesa Irrigation district for water service for a new well on the Interstate lease, near the rig which is now erected.

It is expected that development work will start at once on the Strowbridge property. The property is adjacent to a well which is now pumping heavy oil for the Interstate.

PLACENTIA MEN TO FIGHT FOR SCHOOL RIGHTS

PLACENTIA, April 9.—The directors of the Placentia Chamber of Commerce meet Tuesday noon to discuss the high school proposition and about 30 citizens were present, besides representatives from Anaheim, Garden Grove and La Habra.

After routine business the meeting was turned over to Chairman Hale of the high school committee and a general discussion was had about the efforts of Placentia to have section 1733a of the 1921 school laws amended to clarify that part that gives the distance from high school building to grammar school district.

Other speakers on the matter from Placentia were President Bradford, John Tuftree, William Berkenstock and Louis Jacobson. Harry Riley, president of the Anaheim chamber of commerce, together with Secretary Reid also spoke, as did Thomas Pickering of Garden Grove.

All organizations urged the changing of the law and Mr. Pickering expressly urged the pushing through of an amendment to the municipal corporations act now before committee at Sacramento, to get out and passed so that towns like Placentia and Garden Grove could incorporate if they so wished. The school committee met last night with the Yorba Linda chamber of commerce to impress upon those folks that they were only interested in amending the law and not interested in asking Yorba Linda to come into any new high school district unless it so wished.

Health Service Plan Outlined To Orange Board

ORANGE, April 9.—Upon request of the city board of trustees, Dr. V. G. Presson, county health officer, appeared here Tuesday, at a meeting of the board, and explained the new plan by which the county health department proposes to operate during the coming year.

Where county health service has cost Orange approximately $2,400 per year, previously, the same service will cost the city only $800 under the new plan. Under the new contracts, cities maintaining the county service will be charged ten cents per capita, and county taxes will provide other needed funds.

ORANGE CLERK MAKES REPORT ON CITY FUNDS

ORANGE, April 9.—Cash received by the city of Orange during the year ending April 1, amounted to $234,727.12, according to the annual report compiled by Carl Lester, city clerk. Of that amount $106,503.64 was in taxes.

Total disbursements during the year, according to the report, amounted to $305,629.30. The balance on hand on March 1, 1924, was $157,464.25, and at present the city coffers contain $86,551.98.

The annual report submitted to the board of trustees by the police department, shows that during the year ending April 1, 186 arrests were made, and $9,332.57 were collected in recorder's court fines.

CITY ZONING PLAN TALKED AT ORANGE

ORANGE, April 9.—A resolution proposing to zone the city of Orange into two districts, business and residential, was introduced and read at the meeting here yesterday, of the board of trustees, by L. F. Coburn, city attorney.

The resolution, which outlines the boundaries of the proposed districts, provides that no business houses may be built in the residential zone, but those already located there will not be moved. Persons intending to violate the proposed ordinance, would not be allowed building permits, according to the resolution.

The trustees discussed the boundaries of the proposed district and decided to alter them in some respects before definite action is taken.

We Can Restore Your Feather Pillows

THOSE FEATHER PILLOWS of yours have become sort of flattened out. Perhaps you thought they should be re-stuffed. That is not the case.

Let us wash and fluff them for you. When they come back, they will look like new.

We have a special way of handling pillows. After washing them thoroughly, we dry them in a tumbler dryer which restores to them their original appearance; fluffiness and comfort.

A hard pillow is not conducive to rest. The moisture which the feathers have absorbed has caused them to curl up and become sharp so that they work their way through the covering.

Our modern laundry can give you service on many articles that you cannot successfully handle at home. Modern equipment enables us to wash Pillows, Lace Curtains, Rugs, Blankets, Quilts and Feather Beds.

Croup Relieved Without Dosing

Too much dosing is harmful to a child's delicate stomach. Often it lays the foundation for ill health in later life. The next time a child seems croupy in the evening apply Vicks over throat and chest and cover with a warm flannel cloth. Leave the bedclothing loose about the neck so that the arising vapors may be freely inhaled. This usually prevents a night attack.

If croup comes on without warning an application of Vicks usually brings relief in 15 minutes.

Vicks can be applied freely and often even on the youngest child with perfect safety.

DO YOU WANT $10

We want a name for our distilled water. We want to pay someone $10 for suggesting a name. All you have to do to get the $10 is to think of a good name, and bring or mail it to us. But it must be mailed or brought before six o'clock Saturday evening, April 11—day after tomorrow.

We have recently established a county-wide delivery service on this distilled water. It is growing rapidly in popularity. We are sure you will say it is the best tasting distilled water you ever drank. This is because it is made by a new process, which removes absolutely every undesirable quality from the water, but leaves the delightful fresh-water taste that is lacking in ordinary distilled water.

We deliver this water anywhere in Orange county, and to all our regular customers we furnish a handsome enameled stand and cooler without charge.

This water is too good a product to be known as just ordinary distilled water. We must have a name of distinction—something that will suggest its superior qualities.

This contest is open to all students of all high schools and junior high schools in Orange county. We hope every student will suggest a name. After the first prize of $10 in cash is awarded the next ten best suggestions will each receive tickets, good for 5 five-gallon bottles of distilled water.

Surely you'll want to get in on this. Get to thinking right now and remember the contest closes on SATURDAY NIGHT, APRIL 11.

STATE SCHOOL HEAD APPEALS TO PRINCIPALS

One of the outstanding features of the annual convention of the California High School Principals' association, being held this week in Santa Barbara, and attended by more than 1000 high school principals from all parts of the state, was the address made by Will C. Wood, state superintendent of public instruction, asked for better support and a more intelligent appreciation of the work carried on by the public schools.

Santa Ana is represented at the meeting by Principal D. K. Hammond, of the high school; William S. Kellogg, principal of the Frances E. Willard junior high school, and H. G. Nelson, principal of the Julia Lathrop junior high school. Principal Hammond was among the speakers listed on the program for the junior college group. He spoke on "The Junior College As a Finishing School."

Here are a few striking paragraphs from Superintendent Wood's address:

School Bears Burdens
"The school has become the burden-bearer of civilization. We are asked to take over all of the burdens and problems which other institutions have failed to solve, and then we are criticised because we cannot operate with 100 per cent efficiency."

"The home has been turned over to the schools. Education has taken over the functions of the home. Even character building has been turned over by the parents to those in charge of the schools of the country. This duty, in my opinion, is largely a duty of the home."

"All professions and vocations have called upon the schools for help in performing duties which they have failed to perform. The apprentice system has failed and the trades now expect the schools to take up the burdens of vocational training."

Why He Protests
"Machinery and modern invention have cut down the working day to almost half, with the result that the youth today, entering a vocation, has almost double the amount of leisure time of workers a few years ago. Now the schools are asked to teach the youth how to use his leisure time. This the schools are willing to undertake, but when the taxpayers complain because we ask for money in order to establish this course of character building which will train the youth to use his leisure time to advantage, I protest."

Varicose Veins Woman Tells How She Cured Ulcers Around Knee

A Pasadena woman who had suffered from varicose veins and ulcers for years tells how PLASMO Mineral Cream drew out the poison and healed up the sores within an amazing short time.

"I had suffered for years from varicose ulcers," she writes. "One knee was completely surrounded by terrible sores. I have to work for a living to support my children and the thought of the torture I suffered when I should have been at home in bed still makes me shudder."

"I had tried everything, but to no avail. Then one day my employer heard of PLASMO and she told me about it. I put on a PLASMO poultice that night. The results were amazing. Within a week four more poultices were applied and within a month there was not a trace of the trouble."

"PLASMO MINERAL CREAM is a great boon to humanity. I wish I could tell every one who suffers as I suffered, about it."

Annual Reports at Church Meet Denote Progress

Reports presented at the annual meeting of the United Presbyterian church, held last night, indicate that the institution has experienced a substantial and steady growth in the past year, particularly in the Bible school and junior sections.

The financial report was the best in history of the church. The sum of $22,644 was contributed for all purposes. Of this amount, $9,347 was devoted to local work, while $13,296 was subscribed for benevolent purposes. The Women's Missionary societies contributed $1530 during the year. The congregation supports Mr. and Mrs. Fred Russell, missionaries, in Abyssinia; Chet Mull, native evangelist, in India; students in girls' school, Assiut, Egypt, and also students in the mountain schools of Kentucky and Tennessee.

A. J. McFadden was elected congregational chairman; W. W. Hoy, congregational treasurer, and T. Harry Warner named to the trustee board for three years.

The members of the congregation enjoyed a dinner at 6:30. Joseph Thompson was chairman of the dinner committee. The business session was followed by a reception for the new members, who were received into the church during the year. John A. Henderson, Sunday school superintendent, was chairman of the reception committee.

No Apologies Are Offered Skirvin

Somebody said the Register ought to apologize to C. F. Skirvin for making a joke about his misfortune in breaking his leg.

The Register didn't make a joke about Skirvin's misfortune; it made a joke about his mistake. The point of the joke being, that any man who had enough sense to get rich running a newspaper in the county ought to have sense enough to keep out of the kitchen. That's where C. F. got his fall and broke his leg.

Anyhow, Skirvin is an awful good scout and likes a joke as well as the next fellow; and he is only getting what is coming to him for saying he has lambasted others in the Rotary organ, the "Wheelbarrow." But just to make sure that the Register had left no bruises on its good friend's feelings, a representative of the paper, in calling on him the other day, mentioned the poor little joke the Register got off and assured him that it was all meant in the kindest possible spirit.

"Oh, thanks," said Skirvin. "That's nothing. One of my friends in Iowa wrote to me and wanted me to send him a picture of our hired girl."

'Lightning Gas'

You know, a lot of people that see some particular product well advertised, arrive at the conclusion that the product in question is no better than any other brand of said product, and in many instances, their conclusion is undoubtedly correct, but then again, hundreds of thousands of people do themselves a great injustice by using inferior quality goods when they could be using the best, if they heeded the advertisement they read.

Here's the point we want to bring out. Did you ever have a headache and have you not been reading for years about Aspirin Tablets being a cure for headaches and never paid any attention to it until one day a friend insisted that you take a couple of tablets and in ten minutes your headache was gone and you just thought to yourself how foolish you were not to have tried Aspirin long before.

And so it is with you and "LIGHTNING GAS" and while your motor may not have a headache today, as sure as you continue to use fuel that promotes carbon trouble, sooner or later that Motor is going to be more or less sick.

Do you know why your old bus does not develop the power it did when it was new? Nothing else but sticky valves and carbon trouble.

Do you know why "33 1-3" per cent of the gas you put in your tank goes out your exhaust without having ever fired? Nothing in the world but carbon in the gasoline you buy.

Now what we want every reader of this piece of advice to do, is at your first opportunity, drive into a "JULIAN STATION," the Orange County stations as listed below, have your tank as close to empty as you can, and fill up on "LIGHTNING," because if there is another brand of gasoline in the world in the class of "LIGHTNING" we don't know it, and the actual results you will get from only one trial, we know will sell you on it.

We feel we can safely say to every motorist, that even at the advanced price of three cents a gallon, "LIGHTNING" will show you thirty-five per cent more value than the gasoline you are now using even if that gas happens to be our own "DEFIANCE" which we are also marketing at the same price as all other standard gasolines.

Remember that until April 14th you may fill up on "LIGHTNING" at 18 1/2c, but from then on, it will cost you three cents a gallon more, but we are not doubtful about your being satisfied to pay the advance after using "LIGHTNING" just once.

All we ask is try it out and if you are not converted, never drive into a "JULIAN STATION" again.

"We'd say we're pretty sure of our stuff," and the big kick is, "LIGHTNING" is a secret known to us alone, and should make "JULIAN PETE" quite a few iron men.

PIONEERS TELL KIWANIS CLUB OF EARLY DAYS

Members of the Santa Ana Kiwanis club today continued to chuckle to themselves as they recalled incidents of early life in Santa Ana, as recited to them yesterday in addresses by Judge J. W. Ballard, of Los Angeles, and George Edgar, pioneer grocer of the city, at the meeting of the club at St. Ann's Inn.

Judge Ballard was Santa Ana's first attorney, Orange county's first deputy district attorney and second judge of the Orange county superior court. Orange county was organized in 1889 and Judge Ballard served for two years as deputy district attorney under Col. E. E. Edwards, one of the men credited with organization of Orange county. Ballard was elected district attorney in 1894, holding that office for two years, when he was elected judge and occupied the bench for six years, until 1902. He moved to Los Angeles a year later.

"When I first came to this city I asked a prominent business man what were the chief assets of Santa Ana and he replied: 'W. H. Spurgeon (founder of Santa Ana) and James McFadden.'" Judge Ballard said, in recounting his impressions of this community when he landed here in 1882.

"And we owe these men a debt of gratitude for their ambition and labor in behalf of this section," the speaker added.

Sees 300,000 Population. Complimenting the Kiwanis club on its membership and its purposes in civic betterment activities, Judge Ballard said that, with the influence of such a group of men, and with the ideal advantages here, it was not extravagant to anticipate here a population of 300,000 within 10 years.

"When one looks back over 43 years of life in Southern California and notes what has been done in that time, it is not hard to imagine that in a few years hence people will stand around and marvel at the changes that have taken place in comparison with even the vast development of today," the former Orange county judge said in reverting to the period of 43 years ago in Orange county, and in declaring that the possibilities here today are just as great as at that time.

He referred to rich soils abundant in this section and how they waited only the development of water to make them bring forth bounteous crops.

"People were wealthy in those days, as wealth was considered at that time, but they did not have a great amount of money," he said in pointing out that in those days residents generally made their living by keeping chickens, a cow or two, growing their own vegetables and by producing crops between rows of trees.

Were Not Discouraged. "I can remember when people here were rearing their orchards because they could not market the product," Judge Ballard said. "And then I have seen those same men admit their mistake and replant their lands to oranges and walnuts."

"Those men who did not become discouraged in those trying times and who held on to their property, are the men who today are riding where they please in speedy automobiles and are cultivating their lands with tractors."

Judge Ballard made witty reference to the day when old German residents of Anaheim were noted for their skill in making wine and in the brewing of beer, adding, "and things here as well as elsewhere have changed wonderfully since those days."

Edgar followed with a snappy talk, in which he related incidents of the past and the association of Judge Ballard with a great many of them. He told of how Judge Ballard came here in 1883 and went to work for him as a clerk and bookkeeper in his store at $20 a month—and he was a married man, too. At the time, Edgar did not know that Ballard had studied law and had been admitted to practice in Nevada, and he related how these talents later asserted themselves and Judge Ballard started up the ladder to success as a jurist.

Defies Age by Using Ordinary Buttermilk to Beautify Complexion

Buttermilk Cream creates beauty almost like magic. The most wonderful thing about it is the fact that whilst it turns the dull, most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty and makes red or rough hands or arms snowy white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use after application. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least shininess or greasiness of the skin.

No matter whether you are troubled with a poor complexion, wrinkles, puffiness around the eyes, freckles, crows feet or lines around the mouth, ugly finger nails, or just a simple roughness of the face, hands or arms caused by wind or sun, you will find that any of these troubles will quickly disappear with the use of Howard's Buttermilk Cream. Steady Growth Is Noted In All Business Lines

Business in all lines is on a steady increase and there is a decided improvement in collections, according to D. H. Betten, manager of the Orange County Credit association.

Notwithstanding the limited rainfall in Orange county, there will be ample water supply from irrigation sources for normal requirements. The hay and grain crops do not look very encouraging, it was stated, but consideration should be given the fact that the entire hay crop does not average more than 2 per cent of the entire agricultural production of the county.

Based on averages and expressed in percentages, the major productions of all crops might be classified as follows from present outlook:

- Oranges, $15,000,000, damaged by frost, 20 per cent, possibly.
- Sugar beets, $5,000,000, too early to prognosticate.
- Walnuts, $4,000,000, just budding, look favorable.
- Beans, $3,000,000, a little early to hazard an expression.
- Lemons, $2,500,000, heavy crop, dull market, prices not so good.
- Fruits (apricots, apples, persimmons, loquats and miscellaneous fruit), $1,500,000. Too early in season for prediction.

Professor Norton, principal of the schools here and at Greenville, in early days, against a charge of inhuman treatment of a pupil. Many old timers of this city will remember Norton and his penchant for severe chastisement. Edgar made allusion to the time when he owned the lot on North Main street now owned by the L. O. O. F., and on which there is a business building. He said at one time he rented that lot for $1 a year for the racks for farmers when they came into town. He concluded with a brief narrative of a boxing match between Ballard and Charley Johnson, the latter a big, husky blacksmith, held in the basement of the old Brunner building, adjoining the Edgar store. Without disclosing the champion, Edgar said that a celebration of the old type followed the bout.

Clyde Horton, son-in-law of Edgar, was chairman of the program, and it was his efforts that the Kiwanis were indebted for the treat they had in the reviewing of early days in Santa Ana.

F. T. Smith and J. A. Cranston were suggested as delegates to the annual convention of Kiwanis International, to be held in St. Paul, June 17-21.

CHORAL UNION WILL PRESENT PRINCE PILSEN

The Orange County Choral union will present the comic opera, "The Prince of Pilsen," in Santa Ana early next month, according to announcement today. In view of the previous successes of this organization, the event is awaited with keen interest by music lovers of this district.

After the last production, "Fra Diavolo," the organization set for itself a high standard, and the membership has entered into rehearsals for the coming presentation with characteristic energy, determined to fully live up to previous attainments.

One of the outstanding features of the society's work has been the choruses, which have always been noted for its strength and beauty of tone, musical proficiency. This same chorus will play a prominent part in the presentation of "The Prince of Pilsen."

Old favorites, as well as some recent additions, will be in the cast of principals, which will include Maurice Phillips, always a favorite with Orange county audiences, Lyra Daley, Thomas Halliwell, Edith Cornell, Garry Garro-way, Charles May, Lawrence May-er, Lillian Medbury, Marceline Hoppes, Reg Taylor.

The key to the success of the Choral union is declared to be without doubt its director, Ellis Rhodes, whose knowledge, not only of the musical requirements, but also of the staging and costuming of productions of this kind, stands the society in good stead.

Combining with Rhodes and the Choral union in their efforts, D. C. Cianfoni will again lend his aid in preparing the orchestra for the production.

The performances of the "Prince of Pilsen" in Santa Ana will be on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 6 and 7, and in Anaheim, Thursday, May 8, where the production will be sponsored by the Anaheim Kiwanis club.

Find Skeleton Of Man Missing For Ten Years

REDDING, Calif., April 9.—A skeleton found in the brush on Big Valley mountain, between Pittville and Bieber, has been identified as that of Russell Braddy, 19, lost 10 years ago from a stage. Braddy was crazed at the time of his disappearance, suffering from walking typhoid. A search of weeks by the whole countryside was unavailing. The bones were found two and a half miles from the old stage road.

Would Keep Dogs From Automobile Running Boards

The practice of having dogs ride on running boards of automobiles would be forbidden under provisions of a bill introduced by Assemblyman Charles Reinhold, which passed the state assembly last Monday, according to advices received at the Santa Ana office of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

The bill would require that, whenever dogs are transported on the outside of automobiles, crates or other enclosures must be provided to keep the animals from falling off.

Violation of the proposed law should be a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not more than $500, or imprisonment for not more than six months, or both.

PROPOSE CHANGE IN COMPENSATION LAW

Santa Ana Christian Scientists are interested in an amendment proposed by representatives of their church, which would alter the workmen's compensation law to allow persons suffering industrial mishaps to be treated by prayer or spiritual means. It was learned today by local church members that the amendment has been referred to the senate judiciary committee for consideration.

The amendment is being opposed by quite a number of employers in the industrial field and by the California League for the Conservation of Public Health. It is claimed by opponents that it would not only permit treatment by Christian Scientists, but would also allow unrestricted treatment by practitioners of other cults or organizations, subscribing to any form of divine, spiritual or mental healing.

The amendment would provide that "any employee who desires treatment by prayer or spiritual means as an exercise or enjoyment of religious freedom, may have such treatment instead of medical or surgical treatment, and need not submit to any physical or medical examination," except as to the section providing for regular physical examinations.

The amendment would further provide that "such treatment by prayer or spiritual means shall be sufficient and a full compliance with all the provisions of this act in regard to treatment or examination."

Protecting Your Wife in Your Will

Mr. B., a business man, had made his will. The bulk of his real estate securities and cash was willed outright to his wife. This was his idea of providing for her future.

Recently, his wife received a circular letter and literature describing a new promotion scheme, which, on the face of it, was unsound. She gave the letter to her husband saying that perhaps "he might be interested in it."

This set Mr. B. to thinking. If his wife thought such a proposition worthy of notice, what would she do with the money he might leave her?

Obviously, in this case it was wiser to revise his will and place his property in trust for his wife. In the hands of a trust company, with the standing and strength equal to the First National Bank of Santa Ana, the property would be protected, and while his wife would receive only an income which sound investment principles justified, it would be a regular and a sure income. She would have no investment cares, and the principal would remain intact.

NEW PLAN OF SELLING REAL ESTATE HELD BIG SUCCESS

Multiple Listing Bureau of Santa Ana Board Is Producing Results

PROPERTY WORTH $113,267 IS SOLD

353 Listings Handled By Local Realtors During 40-Day Period

By W. B. MARTIN
Secretary Santa Ana Board of Realtors

For many years, the old plan of listing with one or two or several real estate men the property which you wished to sell, was the principal method of putting real estate on the market. That same plan is still followed by many people today.

Another plan, which is in favor with many real estate men, is to secure an exclusive listing for the sale of the property. This means that no other office or person has the right to sell the property without first consulting the real estate man who holds the exclusive listing. This has its good features, but limits the market to the endeavors of one man or firm.

Listing Bureau Formed

After much thought, a multiple listing bureau was organized which includes in its membership the entire personnel of the Santa Ana Board of Realtors. At present, that means 86 realtors, their salesmen and affiliated selling forces. Therefore, when a listing is taken by the multiple listing bureau, it immediately goes into the hands of 86 offices represented by this membership. This means that the next morning after the listing is taken, more than 200 live realtors are in possession of the facts about the property for sale and have the right to secure a buyer for it. There is no other known method of marketing where so many salesmen can be put to work simultaneously on the property as by multiple listing.

Sales Total $113,267

This service has been in operation only a short time. It has marketed for the seller, $113,267 worth of property, large properties being handled to date.

Out of 353 listings accepted, each of which ran for 40 days only, the service has sold 22, or 6% per cent. This is very good when you consider that only 40 days are given in which to sell the property.

The average price of the properties sold through the multiple listing service was $5148.

Multiple Listing Success

The best feature of the plan is that your business is in the hands of realtors, all of whom are possessed

ORDER 10,000 GLASS GLOBES FROM S. A. FIRM

An order for 10,000 globes for gum machines has been awarded to the Standard-American Glass company by the Vendor Distributing company, both new Santa Ana industrial concerns, it was learned today. The glass firm is expected to start filling the order within 30 days.

The foundation for the Vendor company's new structure in the Central industrial district is completed and work of installing the steel work will be started within a few days. Sixty-four tons of steel will be used in the first floor. Approximately 200 tons will be used throughout the three stories.

The Vendor company will manufacture gum, candy, and vending machines. At present, the firm is being supplied from a plant at Oakland.

The Vendor company has a contract with the Unique Vending company, also a Santa Ana company, whereby the latter firm takes all of its products.

It is believed that the Vendor company will be able to start manufacturing operations here within 90 days.

CHAMBER SECRETARY SAYS INDUSTRIAL EXPANSION IS IMPORTANT PROBLEM HERE

By A. L. OLIGER
Secretary Chamber of Commerce

Industrial expansion is one of the most important problems confronting Santa Ana and Orange county at the present time. This has been emphasized by the fact that a majority of the chamber of commerce members has placed this item at the top of the list in our recent "thought survey."

In view of the demand for industrial development in this immediate section, the board of directors of the chamber has instructed the writer to call a conference of the manufacturers of Santa Ana and vicinity, for the purpose of working out a definite plan of procedure in advancing our industrial activities.

Plan Conference.

It is planned to call the conference within the next 30 days and when the call is issued, it is sincerely hoped that every firm in Santa Ana that is interested in the manufacturing problems of this section will be present.

In developing the plan, the directors feel that the first step should be taken in getting the local manufacturers better acquainted. It is a conceded fact that many of our leading business men are not familiar with the articles now being manufactured in Santa Ana.

The chamber of commerce has just completed the task of bringing its industrial files up to date and within 10 days will issue a directory of buyers' guide of Santa Ana industries and Santa Ana products. This directory will contain the names of our manufacturers, their location and their products. The directory will be distributed throughout the city with the hope of acquainting the people of Santa Ana with the many products now being made in this district.

Urges Preference.

At the present time, many articles are purchased out of town that easily could be purchased locally. Many persons are not familiar with the fact that as good or better articles at equal or lower prices can be purchased in Orange county. Surely Santa Ana manufacturers are entitled to the preference when all other things are equal, but it is up to the local manufacturer to deliver the goods on the same basis as the outside manufacturer.

The writer feels that Santa Ana and Orange county has wonderful opportunities ahead of it along industrial lines if the business men and those vitally interested will work in harmony and plan together for the general advancement of the community industrially.

The first step in this direction is for men to know each other better and the next step is for the citizens of Santa Ana to know more about Santa Ana made goods. When men become better acquainted with each other, it is found that they have many things in common and the community that works in harmony with its business men and manufacturers is the city that will prosper in the future.

12 of 26 Realty Applicants Fail To Pass L. A. Test

According to word received in Santa Ana today, 12 of the 26 applicants who applied for real estate licenses in Los Angeles yesterday "flunked." None of the men were from this city. J. H. Richardson, chief deputy commissioner, who was in charge of the examination, declares that several of the dozen were unable to tell what constituted a realty transaction.

REALTOR SAYS HOME OWNING IS PRACTICAL

Advantages In Having Own Home Is Told By Member of Realty Board

By A. V. NAPIER
Realtors' Committeeman

Perhaps you have been considering the possibilities of having a home of your own. You've been annoyed, maybe, by the necessity of moving from one place to another; or you can't rent the sort of house your requirements really demand, or for some business or sentimental reason, you have been thinking the problem over. Is there anything practical to be said about it?

Hut First Home

Ever since the first man crawled out of his dismal cave into the sunlight and constructed a rude hut of sticks and stones for himself and his mate, a beautiful sentiment has been associated with the thought of "home." I can imagine the smiles of that first home-builder when he saw that his work was practical and good. I imagine that when he had finished his walls and had padded the interior with soft grasses, he called to other cave men and, pointing with pride to the evidence of his own ingenuity, he shouted, "Come see, I have built a home!"

But I imagine, was the beginning of hospitality and as others followed the example of the first builder, they became neighbors and friends. Since then men have written poems and have sung songs that bubbled over with the sentiment of "Home Sweet Home."

Renter Paying Interest

But is there anything practical or business like connected with the ownership of a home? Let's see, what is the status of a man who is renting a home? He is just borrowing a home from some other man, isn't he? Once a month, the owner of the home comes around and collects the interest on the loan and we call it rent. But really, it's the interest on the owner's investment. He has put a certain sum of money into the place and he figures that seven or eight per cent interest on that sum amounts to so much per month. He adds the average expense for repairs, taxes, etc., and the whole sum is the amount he charges the borrower, in the form of rent. The man who is renting a home is paying the entire interest on the owner's investment.

Reasons For Owning Home

Instead of borrowing a home to live in and paying the owner's interest on the investment, wouldn't it be more practical to borrow the money, build your home and pay interest on your own investment? Leaving out the convenience and economy of living in a home that is specially built to meet your requirements; and leaving out the pleasure and sentiment that surrounds the private flower garden and the children's own playground, there most certainly is a practical reason for paying interest on your own investment.

The selling value of property in Santa Ana, since the town was first planned, has doubled every eleven and a half years! The home which

Home Owners Shun Court, Says Jurist

CHICAGO, April 9.—The couple who own their own home are in little danger of grounding on the divorce rocks, according to Judge Joseph Sabath, of the superior court of Cook county, known nationally for his work as a divorce judge.

"Very few people who own their homes come into the divorce courts," Judge Sabath said in a recent address before the board of governors of the Chicago "own your home" exposition.

"Men are eager to stay in their own homes, to drive a nail or two and cut the grass. Having the wife of her own gives the wife the opportunity to serve her husband that she does not have in rented quarters and this will make him love her more."

LARGE NUMBER OF DWELLINGS BEING ERRECTED

Home building continues unabated in Santa Ana, the majority of the permits granted by Building inspector W. S. Decker being for dwellings and garages.

An 8-room home to require the expenditure of $7500 will be erected at 1914 North Main street by W. E. Winslow, of 110 West Twentieth street. The structure will occupy ground space 45 by 60 feet. A garage will also be built. The owner will supervise the work.

Six thousand dollars will be expended by the Santa Ana Land company, of the First National Bank building, in the erection of a residence and a garage at 2308 Oakmont street. The dwelling will have six rooms. Construction will be by day work.

T. L. Scudder, 1513 West Eighth street will build a residence at the same address. The building will have six rooms. Scudder will be in charge of the building operations.

S. Clary, 119 El Portal street, has secured permits for the erection of a dwelling and a garage at 119 West Nineteenth street. The cost will be $2500.

George Stryling, 1118 Orange avenue, plans construction of a 4-room house and a garage at 214 East Oxford street. Construction will be by day work.

PLAN CONTEST FOR SCHOOL STUDENTS

Luncheon Clubs, Theaters and Churches Will Be Requested to Help

BY NEIL STANLEY
Development Editor

An "own your home" campaign which includes a survey to determine the number of people in Santa Ana who own their own homes, is being conducted by the S. A. Realtors' association and the National Association of Real Estate boards and is designed to stimulate interest in home owning.

The campaign is fostered by the California Real Estate association and the National Association of Real Estate boards and is designed to stimulate interest in home owning.

A meeting of the special committee named to make the arrangements for the campaign was held at Kerner's cafe April 6, at which time plans were discussed and various sub-committees elected to carry on the work. The special committee consists of Asa Hoffman, chairman; James Livesey, sr.; Everett White, William Iverson, W. Floyd Croddy, John Knox, Stanley Goodie and A. V. Napier.

The survey will be conducted by 50 members of the local board of realtors and will be started at once. It is believed that it will be possible to make a complete survey in one week's time.

The survey will disclose the fact that Santa Ana has an unusually large number of home owners, members of the committee believe.

The co-operation of the various building trades will be asked by the realtors.

Will Seek Pastors' Aid

The pastors of the various churches here will be asked to set aside one Sunday this month for a discussion on the subject of homes. The luncheon clubs and the theaters will be requested to permit members of the committee to give short talks on the objects of the campaign.

Cash prizes totaling $25 will be given to the winners in the essay contest. The essays will be limited to 400 words each. The one published in this Register. The contest will be confined to students in the high school and the two junior highs. Further details will be announced next Thursday.

"All over the country, people are awakening to the importance of owning their homes," said Chairman Hoffman today. "The campaign which the local real-

Dear Justine,

We've been in it now for a week. The furniture is all arranged and everything is the spickest and spanest you can imagine. Joe and I thought we were happy before, and of course we were, but this is like getting married all over again.

Yes it's the only way and you are fortunate to be starting your married life so—in your own home. Perhaps if you had had a year of renting first—as we have had—you would appreciate it more.

I only hope you are fortunate enough to get in touch with some building material firm that will help you with your plans etc. as the Barr Lumber Company has helped us with ours.

Pioneer Shingles make safe roofs

A safe roof must be more than fire resistant. It must also withstand the beating sun, extreme cold and heavy rains and winds.

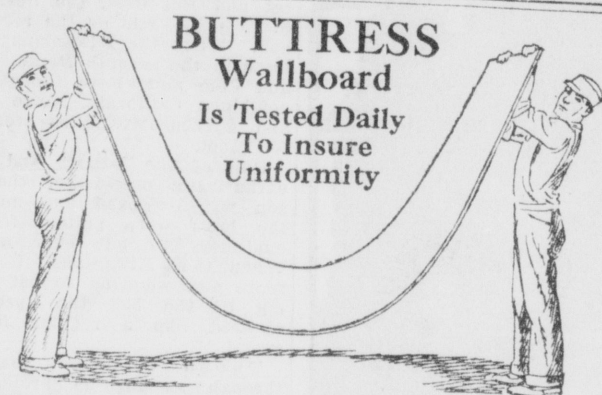

Flawless fire resistance is only a part of the function of Pioneer Yosemite Asphalt Shingles. Crushed stone, laid on asphalt, makes them 100% efficient. They prevent leakage that spoils plaster—eliminate seepage, that slowly warps and rots the very framework of the structure, and protect mansion and cottage alike. There is a specified type for every kind of roof and for re-roofing they go right over the old roof. Lumber, hardware and building material dealers sell them in red, green, blue black and golden brown.

BUTTRESS Wallboard Is Tested Daily To Insure Uniformity

Test No. 3—One of the many tests to which the daily production of Buttress Wallboard is subjected is the Test for Flexibility. Two men take a 12-foot length of Buttress Wallboard, hold it as high as they can reach, then walk toward each other and bend the board until it touches the floor. You can make this test yourself without breaking or cracking the board, and when released it will spring back to its original shape.

BUTTRESS Wallboard

In the long run the cost of Buttress Wallboard is many times less than lath and plaster construction, for it lasts as long as the building stands and needs no repairs. You will find that Buttress 5/8-inch Wallboard is much stronger than ordinary wallboard.

When You Order Wallboard From Your Lumber Dealer, Be Sure To Specify "Buttress."

REALTOR GIVES FACTS ON HOMES

was built in Santa Ana twenty-five years ago at a cost of $3000, is today worth, and if sold, would bring $12,000, taking them by averages. If you have been paying rent in Santa Ana for the past 25 years, you have lost in actual cash $9000. If you continue to pay rent for another 25 years, you will lose another $9000 if the law of averages holds good.

No Profit in Renting
You may lose more than that, because much of the residential property of Santa Ana will be occupied by business houses within 25 years. But regardless of the rate of increase in the future, there is one outstanding fact that you can write down now and absolutely depend upon, and that fact is this, nobody ever will, under any circumstances, make a profit through the increase in value of a home he is renting.

Conceding that it is good business to own your own home, naturally you want to know just how to go about acquiring one. Buying a home is just as simple as buying anything else. It embodies the exercise of good judgment in the selection of something that will be entirely suited to your needs, something that will steadily increase in value and something you can eventually pay for. If you have the ready money, all you need to do is to select what you want. If you haven't the cash, then you can borrow the money or buy it on the installment plan. You buy on the installment plan now. You pay on the installment plan, you should keep within your means and select something that will require payments approximately the same as the rental you are now paying.

Buying a home on the installment plan is practical and sound. It is more practical than the purchase of many other things which are continually bought and sold in installments. You buy a rug for so much down and so much a month. The minute you put it on the floor, it becomes a second-hand rug and its value has decreased at once. You buy an automobile with a payment down, followed by regular monthly payments and the car not only depreciates from the moment you drive it home but it may be entirely worn out and in the junk yard before you have finished paying for it. But a home, there's something practical, because the longer you keep it, the more valuable it becomes.

When you get the idea that you are tired of paying the interest on some other man's investment, and you have not been able to accumulate enough to buy a home, any reliable realtor will show you how to proceed. There are several concerns in Santa Ana that make it their business to loan money for the purchase of a home and the money can be paid back like rent. I know of two good families in Santa Ana who bought their homes on the installment plan without the payment of a single dollar in cash. The inclination of those who build homes is to encourage any man who is sincerely endeavoring to own a home.

Any renter can own a home as good as the one he is living in. If he can pay rent, he can apply payments on a piece of property. It's just as easy to find a man who will loan you money and let you pay it back in regular monthly sums as it is to find a man who will loan you a house and let you pay him rent. The principal difference in the two loans is that when you rent a home, you just pay and pay and keep on paying, but you never acquire any interest financially, while the loan of money is eventually paid back and you have acquired a home free and clear.

upon by their fellow realtors before they can become members of the board. That means that they are men of good standing in the community, men with whom it is perfectly safe to entrust your business dealings.

Multiple listing has ceased to be an experiment. It has become the accepted method of marketing real estate successfully and expeditiously.

Relief from Constipation A Safe, Easy Way

Avoid drugs. They form a dangerous habit. You must increase the dose to get the effect. The intestine muscles get lazy. They look for help before they will act. This is bad. Thousands of people today cannot eliminate food waste without taking a drug. The more they take, the farther removed are they from normal, natural functioning. The farther they are along the road to chronic ill-health. Veronica is a natural mineral water—nothing added or taken away from it. It is not a drug. It gently assists nature, safely, surely. "Beyond a doubt, everyone should own their own home. There is nothing difficult about acquiring a home and I venture to say that there is not a man or woman in Santa Ana who could not own their home if they would but make up their minds. Prices are reasonable and by small down and monthly payments, securing a home is the simplest thing in the world. "The committee named by the Santa Ana Board of realtors wants the cooperation of everyone in Santa Ana in making this campaign the success that it deserves."

The campaign will come to a close April 30.

Court Notes

George Koenig, elderly resident of La Habra, who claims that his short-lived honeymoon with Mrs. Luella Koenig, was sprinkled with jabs and uppercuts, succeeded in winning a divorce late yesterday, in the face of his wife's suit for separate maintenance.

The couple, in court yesterday, took turns in telling Superior Judge R. Y. Williams of the other's shortcomings. Koenig apparently succeeded in telling the most convincing story.

Mrs. Koenig, who married Koenig in Anaheim in September, 1923, and separated from him five months later, accused her husband of failing to supply sufficient groceries for the family table. A can of condensed milk, a loaf of bread, and some sugar, was the total daily ration, she declared. Koenig owns several parcels of property and is rated well to do. His wife asks $50 a month alimony, and use of one of his houses.

She failed to get her demands. Koenig got his divorce decree and the court ordered that both should keep possession of their own property.

Attorneys Marks, Launer and Collins represented Koenig in the case. Attorneys Allen and Lyon appearing for Mrs. Koenig.

Railway Wants Money
Judgment for $2997.45 was asked today in a superior court action filed by the Pacific Electric Railway company against Ashby Turner, J. Earl Talcott and P. C. Beissel, owners of Santa Ana sub-line, the railway company claims this sum is due it from the defendants for the expense of paving railway crossing at Wisteria street, Normandie place and Beverly place, Santa Ana.

Want Note Judgment
The Adams-Bowers Lumber company, of Anaheim, today had filed suit in the superior court against Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Lehnberg, asking judgment for $394.51 on a note. Attorneys Ames and McFadden represent the plaintiff.

File Suit On Note
The First National bank, of Fullerton, seeks to recover $390 alleged to be on a note from the Orange County Fast Freight line, in a suit on file today in the superior court. Attorney Guss Hagenstein is counsel for the bank.

Would Annul Marriage
When Ethel Mae Fowler married James T. Shelton at Oklahoma City, Okla., last September 16, there was a double bar to the legality of the ceremony, according to a suit filed today in the superior court of this county, to annul the marriage.

The girl, it is said, was but 14 years old, and did not have the consent of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Fowler, Shelton, too, was not eligible to wed, as he had a former wife living and not divorced, it is claimed.

Annulment of the marriage and restoration of the girl's maiden name are asked in the suit, which names the parents and the girl as plaintiffs, and Shelton as defendant. Attorney Kenneth H. Burns represents the plaintiffs.

Judgment Asked

Judgment for $1041.50 was asked today in a superior court suit filed by the Continental Collection and Adjustment company, against Frank Beck. The claim is based on an account with the Durallito company, Inc., assigned to the plaintiff.

Settle Oil Dispute

A $500 dispute between J. I. Oliphant and B. F. McIndoo, of Huntington Beach, who were associated in an oil drilling venture, was being settled today in Superior Judge F. C. Drumm's court.

Oliphant demands judgment for $500, which amount he says he gave McIndoo to finance oil drilling on McIndoo's property. McIndoo, he claims, promised to repay him at "four to one" ratio, if oil was found. Oliphant's share to be $2000. And if it was not located, McIndoo agreed to repay the $500 with interest, Oliphant alleged.

McIndoo had a different version of the arrangement. Oliphant handed him the $500 and "took a gambler's chance" on getting oil, he states. If oil was struck, Oliphant was to get $3000. If no oil was struck, Oliphant was to get nothing.

Furthermore, McIndoo, contends, there was no agreement or promise that McIndoo was to do the drilling himself. It was understood that he was to lease his property for drilling. He told Oliphant that he did not intend to drill, and could not finance drilling, but would attempt to lease his land. He did effect one lease, he stated, and has not yet abandoned hopes of arranging another lease. For that reason, he contends, Oliphant's action is premature.

Attorneys George L. Bachman, of Long Beach, and the firm of Scarborough, Forgy and Reinhaus, Santa Ana, represent Oliphant. Attorneys James L. Hansen, Huntington Beach, and John A. Harvey, Santa Ana, are counsel for McIndoo.

Billy Evans SAYS

UNIQUE FACT

It is a fact that very few ball players of Hebrew extraction make the grade in the majors.

This is rather surprising, since the Jew shines in other sports, the fight game in particular.

During a recent training camp at one of the spring training camps, Hugh Jennings offered what I regard as the real reason for the failure of the Jew athlete to shine in the majors.

The successful ball player, the fellow who makes the big show, must start playing ball the moment he is able to walk and go through the motions of throwing.

From the ages of six to 12 is the most important period in the development of the ball player. He must master the fundamentals of the game and train properly the muscles used in baseball.

"It is absolutely a physical impossibility for a boy to shun baseball until he is 14 or 15 years old and then take it up with a hope of becoming proficient.

"It is impossible to develop the baseball muscles at such a late age. During the period when the youngster should be playing baseball if he wants to be a star, the Jewish boy is learning the fundamentals of 'business, the art of making money.'

The theory propounded by Jennings was generally accepted as the real reason for the failure of the Jew to shine in major league circles. He's a street, or store merchant at the time when the ball-playing youngster is in the making.

WITTY SOLUTION

It is a matter of record that during the past 20 years haven't been over a half dozen major ball players of Hebrew extraction.

In this connection it is a most interesting fact that there are no more enthusiastic fans in the country than the Jews. Their patronage does much to make baseball the remarkable financial success that it is.

A star of the type of Collins, Ruth, Speaker, Vance or Johnson would be a mint in New York if he were of Hebrew parentage.

John McGraw of the Giants, quick to sense such a possibility, had a player by the name of Solomon last year, who he hoped would make the grade and be a big favorite with the New York audiences. He failed to stick.

Getting back to the question of the scarcity of Jewish ball players in the majors, which Jennings best explained, Jack Bentley, star pitcher of the Giants, ended the discussion with a humorous explanation which was new to me. If you have heard it before I pass the buck to Bentley.

"What Jennings says about the scarcity of Jew ball players in the majors is probably right," said Bentley, "but I have always understood it was because they just wouldn't step on a diamond."

REGULAR JOB

Bentley, by the way, looks to be in for a big year. Always troubled by extra weight, which he puts on easily, he is in the best shape of his career this spring.

He tells me that he is 15 pounds lighter than last season and weighs less than he ever did before in the spring.

Bentley, aside from being a great southpaw, is one of the best hitters in the National League. He strengthens a team at the bat when he pitches. When a pinch-hitter is needed he is at his best.

Jack tells me that while he likes pitching, he loves to play baseball so much that he is sorry he can't get into the game every day.

OCEAN DWARFS TO BEGIN RUN FRIDAY NIGHT

Hundreds Expected to Join Hunt For Grunion; Table Of Nights Announced

Grunion, elusive and highly-prized little dwarfs of the sea, "run" along the Orange county beach line tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday nights.

They begin tomorrow night at 10:11 o'clock.

Grunion-hunting always has been a popular sport here. Hundreds of persons build their campfires on the sand to await the coming of the sparkling, flashing little fish which come ashore to spawn at this time of year.

They come in schools and, if undisturbed, often stay on the sand for from 5 to 15 minutes.

Grunion are to be found almost anywhere along the seashore but in larger quantities where there is a seepage of fresh water.

On the request of The Register, Victor Walker, local sporting goods dealer and fish and game expert, has made out a table of the nights grunion will run and at what time of night they will begin making their appearance.

Grunion "runs" are controlled by the moon.

Walker's table follows:
April 10—10:11 p. m.; April 11—10:47 p. m.; April 12—11:23 p. m.; April 24—10:00 p. m.; April 25—10:29 p. m.; April 26—10:57 p. m.

May 10—10:24 p. m.; May 11—11:12 p. m.; May 12—11:59 p. m.; May 24—9:56 p. m.; May 25—10:24 p. m.; May 26—10:57 p. m.

June 8—10:14 p. m.; June 9—11:05 p. m.; June 10—11:59 p. m.; June 23—10:08 p. m.; June 24—10:39 p. m.; June 25—11:14 p. m.

July 7—10:08 p. m.; July 8—10:56 p. m.; July 9—11:48 p. m.; July 22—9:56 p. m.; July 23—10:57 p. m.; July 24—10:59 p. m.

YANK LEADER SAYS HE FEARS DETROIT

GREENVILLE, S. C., April 9.—"Detroit will be the big factor in the American league pennant race this year because the Tigers will have the urge of the first pennant behind them," Miller Huggins, manager of the New York Yanks, said today.

"The Yanks had the same inspiration four years ago but they haven't that spirit now. Washington had it last year but will not have it this year in the same degree. Detroit hasn't had a pennant in years and if the club gets away to a good start it will be hard to catch," Huggins said.

The Yank manager said he had traded Joe Bush and Mike McNally because he wanted to get some players who had not been with a pennant winning club and he said he would have made several other trades for the same purpose if he had been able to put them over.

"Boost our business, we have boosted yours."

RUTH ILLNESS WILL HELP AS DRAWING CARD

Public Keenly Interested In Tribulations of Big New York Yank Slugger

BY HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, April 9.—With all his trials and tribulations, his battered hands and his trick stomach, Babe Ruth probably will be a bigger drawing card than ever this year. He has had a million dollars' worth of advertising this spring and the Babe needs little but his natural color to keep the public interested in him.

When he popped up at Hot Springs to begin his training, the startling news was broadcast that he was 40 pounds overweight and that he never would work himself down to fit his old uniforms. He worked his head off during the day to take off six or seven pounds and would go to the dinner table so famished that he would eat the six or seven pounds back on.

Then he reported at the Yankee training camp in St. Petersburg and told newspapermen that he was broke and about through. He wailed that he didn't have any money left and that he had only a season or two left in him.

He then started hitting the ball as he never hit in the early season and the waist line shrunk to normal.

Bad luck followed when he broke a finger in practice and just when the finger was back in shape, he pulled up with a pair of "charley horses." Then his stomach went back on him. Getting out of the jam, he had a mild attack of "flu" and was coming out of that when he caught more cold and ended up with a collapse in a railroad station. He isn't over that attack yet and he may have to spend a week in the hospital before he can join the team.

It is very likely that his playing will be affected by all his troubles. The same experience last summer and he did not get going on his real game until the hot weather came.

HUDKINS-MANDELL MATCH IS PLANNED

LOS ANGELES, April 9.—With a bout between Ace Hudkins and Sammy Mandell as a tentative arrangement for the opening card, an open-air boxing arena capable of seating 25,000 will be built by Hollywood capital.

Excavation work on the $100,000 project is to begin tomorrow, according to Tom Kennedy, former matchmaker at Hollywood and general manager of the new venture.

According to Kennedy's announcement, the arena will be at Vermont and Santa Monica, and will be suitable for wrestling, cycle races and other sports in addition to boxing.

Kennedy has Hudkins in line for a shot at Mandell and is in touch with the Rockefeller, Ill. flash in an attempt to get his consent to the bout.

KIWANIS CLUB UPSETS DOPE, BEATS HALEYS

Colorful Old-Timers Stage Five-Run Rally In Last Inning For 6-2 Victory

Shaking the Santa Ana Indoor Baseball league to its very foundations, the Kiwanis club team, once looked on as the "weak sister" of the circuit, last night slipped down the O. A. Haleys D. B.'s, considered by many experts the fastest outfit in the loop. The score was 6 to 2. The winners staged a great rally in the last inning, tallying five runs to overcome a lead.

The Kiwanians teamed with color. Young Tommy Hitt, son of Roy Hitt, for many years the premier southpaw pitcher of the Pacific coast league was on the firing line and he turned in a whale of a game. Anson Mott and Clair Head, who were playing professional baseball with Walter Johnson and other famous stars when most of their opponents last night were toddling to grammar school, tolled as if a chance in the major leagues was the prize. Maurice Enderle, former Stanford second baseman, and Art May, former Nebraska university track captain, were others who wore the Kiwanis spangles.

A modern college football battery worked for the Haleys. George Baker, the big blond Stanford center, was on the turf, and Bill Cole, the husky U. S. C. tackle, was on the receiving end. When the Kiwanians broke loose in the seventh frame, Baker and Cole must have thought the combined California, Notre Dame and Syracuse varsities were after them.

One of the largest and most enthusiastic crowds of the season was on hand and most of the bugs were pulling for the old-timers to put over a win. When the Kiwanians broke the score and went on to bat Baker out of the box the spectators cheered like a regular football crowd.

Those old-timers may be through as far as professional ball is concerned but if they play this indoor game all season as they did last night they're going to send a lot of the younger generation home talking to themselves.

Roy Hitt was on hand to watch his son paddle the Haleys and he looked like he was getting as much kick out of the youngster's triumph as he did out of any of his own countless victories on the ball field.

A brilliant running catch by Arnold Peck, Kiwanis center fielder, was the evening's fielding feature.

The Southern California Edison company club will make its season debut at the Poly grounds tonight, meeting the crack McFadden Hardware company team. The box score:

EVENING SALUTATION
Once, to every man and nation, comes the moment to decide.
In the strife of Truth with Falsehood, for the good or evil side.
—James Russell Lowell.

THE FILLING STATION

Without endeavoring even to express an opinion as to whether there should be a filling station at East First and Hickory streets, The Register ventures to say that the question of locating filling stations is one that should be dealt with vigorously by the Board of City Trustees.

We will admit that filling stations are a public convenience. We all make use of them; that is, everyone who owns an automobile does, and that includes nearly all of us these days. But it is the opinion of nearly everyone, we are sure, that we have enough stations in Santa Ana. The public convenience is well supplied.

There is a suggestion that has been made, we believe by a member of the city council. It is well worth thinking about. That suggestion is, that steps be taken to limit the amount of curbing that a filling station may tear down in order to supply itself with entrances. Further, that every station now in operation that has taken into itself more curbing than is necessary to easy operation of the station be made to restore the curbing. Parking space is far too valuable for it to be wasted unnecessarily.

CHARLES A. RIGGS

The death of Charles A. Riggs brought an end to the life of a man who has had an intimate part in the upbuilding of the business life of Santa Ana. That part was always a part in favor of sound, substantial, honest methods, for in character, as well as in reputation, Mr. Riggs was a man whose ideas were based on good judgment, good reasoning and common honesty.

His death brings to a large circle of friends a distinct sense of personal loss. That sense of loss is due not so much to the fact that he was interested in business affairs as to the fact that his friends knew him to be a true friend. His counsel, often sought, was sincere and valuable. His heart went out to the unfortunate, and it was for that reason, as well as for the fact that he was known as a thorough business man, that he was chosen to head one of the county humanitarian organizations, the Society for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis.

He was a kindly man, a likeable man, a sound business man, a good citizen, a gentleman.

Straw hats this year have bright colored bands, which the wearers are "expected" to change as often as they change their neckties. Why not make the hat bands and neckties interchangeable?

HIGH OR LOW PRICES?

It has been believed pretty generally the last year or two that prices were going to stabilize themselves somewhere from one-half to two-thirds above the pre-war level. In recent months they seemed destined to rise again rather than recede. Now observers are not so sure.

An interesting comment is made by Theodore H. Price, editor of Commerce and Finance. He recalls the fact that seven years after the Napoleonic wars inflated values began to swing back to pre-war values, and that the same thing occurred after the end of our Civil War. It is nearly seven years now, he observes, since the World War ended. Will economic history repeat itself this time?

Evidently this authority would not be greatly surprised if it should. And he is not alarmed by any such prospect, as many financiers and business men are inclined to be. For if there were a new deflation now, he reminds the public, "the cost of living would be reduced and people would be willing and able to go back to work at wages that would justify renewed activity in enterprise that is now suspended because capitalists fear to put their money into new construction while wages and building material are so high."

He admits that such a decline might bring about "psychological depression" for a time, but holds that "the ultimate effect would be salutary" because, "while decreasing the cost of production and cost of living, it would provide employment for many now unemployed."

If receding prices were considered certain to have such effect, there would be little objection to them. There are more consumers than producers—everybody consumes—and consumers like low prices. But this reasoning is not very welcome to most business men.

There are other factors of importance, too. Rising value, by cheapening money, benefited debtors at the expense of creditors. Falling values would benefit creditors at the expense of debtors—the debtors would have to repay with "dear money" the "cheap money" they borrowed during the inflation period.

Two families from North Carolina have been fighting out an old feud in Colorado. Good idea for feudists to go west to settle their grudges; but they should all go 2,000 or 3,000 miles farther in that direction.

OPERA FOR THE WORLD

"I'll tell the world" ceases to be slang and takes on the dignity of a symbolic slogan, as radio extends its triumphs. Broadcasters are telling the world all kinds of things, with a persistency and range that admit no opposition. The time is already here when one man in one spot may speak, or one singer may sing, to an audience covering this continent and reaching across the neighboring oceans. But no speaker or singer so far has appealed directly and consciously to all the world.

Germany will set a precedent in this respect on Good Friday. Under the baton of Max von Schilling, director-general of the state opera, Wagner's "Parsifal" is to be "transmitted to the world." It will be broadcast from the station at Koenigs-Wusterhausen, starting at 3 p. m. European time, which is 9 a. m. New York time. It is expected that direct reception will cover a range of several thousand miles, and the opera will be re-broadcast by many distant sending stations, so that, with good air conditions, it may be heard literally in all quarters of the world.

This is a worthy experiment of a sort that may become common within a few years. "Parsifal" is often criticized as long, heavy and tedious; but it has wonderful music in it, and is appropriate to the occasion. Opera, too, carries well by radio, as spoken drama seldom does, and has a steadily growing appeal among radio fans.

Anyway, there won't be any way as long as the nations are all engaged in cross word puzzles.

Defends the Speed Trap

San Diego Union.

Abuse of the "speed trap" as a means of detecting traffic law violators, was the only argument advanced against the device when the state legislature abolished it two years ago. The recent effort to reopen the case for the speed trap brought up the question of whether it might be more reasonable to protect this device against abuses, than to rule it out altogether. It is unfortunate that the move was made suddenly, without adequate preparation, to the question really deserves a little study. As it was, the senate defeated a proposal to reinstate the speed trap, by the narrow margin of only two votes.

The so-called speed trap was a "snoopy" sort of device, and most annoying to its victims. It was obviously susceptible to abuse, and communities with freak traffic laws used it as a means of extracting revenue from motorists who were quite innocent of any recklessness. At the same time, the method was not unreasonable nor itself unjust, and it provided an effective restraint for some drivers who needed restraint.

With simple and uniform traffic regulations in force, the speed trap would be no more unfair than any other police device for detecting law violations. Abolition of the speed trap has put an obstacle in the way of enforcing the traffic laws on our state highways, and has handicapped this branch of law enforcement—a branch that obviously needs every encouragement and reasonable aid. The officer who is to protect the public against reckless driving, is hampered by a rule that does not apply to any other branch of the police service.

Whatever the fine and sportsmanlike theory that may be alleged in behalf of the abolition of speed traps, the net effect of the abolition is to encourage speeding and to make speeders harder to catch.

Motorists with any degree of experience on the state highways, will be the first to agree that the reckless driver and the careless speeder are dangerous. They are also violators of the law. It is legal protection given to no other class of law-breakers. Officers in civilian clothes are allowed to work upon cases of suspected gambling, burglary, swindling. Agents in blue goggles and false whiskers may pry into the secret workings of suspected bootlegging establishments. Disguising officers of the law is by no means illegal in these cases—and while it may not be exactly "sporting," the detection of crime is not a sport, but a grim and serious business. Why should the law be denied an obvious advantage in running down the law-breakers—the dangerous law-breakers—who are making our highways unsafe?

The narrow margin by which the restoration of the speed trap has just been defeated in the state's senate, indicates that there will be a renewed effort to restore this rather effective device. The effort should be made. If, in the meanwhile, something is accomplished in standardizing traffic laws throughout the state, the only injustice in the speed-trap device will have been mitigated or removed.

Poisoned Liquors

Santa Barbara News.

There should be no loss of time at Sacramento in placing on the statute books of that state the bill offered by a Siskiyou legislator which makes it a felony to sell liquor that has been poisoned by the addition of wood alcohol. In the event of death from drinking liquor thus poisoned, under the terms of the bill the seller would be guilty of murder. The public morals committee of the assembly has just reported the bill favorably to the legislative body and, according to reports from the state capital, there is sufficient strength to enact the bill into law. The use of wood alcohol in the preparation of any food or extracts is also prohibited by the act.

The bootlegger who sells liquors that carry with them a poison known to be fatal to human life is a potential murderer and should be made to suffer the penalty prescribed for homicide if his product causes death. Society is protected by law against the gunman, the medical poisoner and other slayers, regardless of the means they use to take human life. But unless we have a special law that will bring the distributor of poison liquor under proper classification, that enemy of society may go about his villainous business without fear of serious consequences when his victims die.

Other states have had such legislation on their statute books for a long time. Bootleggers have been tried under it and convicted. It is time that California gave its citizens similar protection, for the good of all concerned.

YOUR HEALTH

By DR. CLIFFORD C. ROBINSON

PROTECTIVE FOOD

In using the term protective foods, I have in mind the foods which are highly useful and necessary in giving children the elements needed for successful development and guarding them against food deficiencies, with body loss in weight and strength.

Just how these protective foods do their work is a dietary fact of great importance. There is always the danger of a one-track diet. The white bread, meat, potato and "some sweet" type of diet, is just as dangerous as it is wholesome.

The real needs of correct body building in all elements are not supplied by this group. They are necessary and healthful, but must be amply supplemented by others which may be termed protective.

They protect against loss in proper bone growth and against early loss of the teeth. In general nutritive qualities these so-called protective foods are of such great value that the body does not and cannot perform its metabolic processes without their assistance.

This list of protective foods includes milk, different kinds of cheese, eggs, cabbage, spinach, cauliflower, collards, lettuce, beet tops and any other green vegetables whose leaves are eaten. Use them throughout the year at proper intervals.

We must have good teeth exercise and proper foods to chew. Faulty teeth are prominent in 90 per cent of school children.

Protective foods will help remedy this condition.

Good Will

A well known automobile company is sold by its owners—widows of the two founders of the concern, who want to be rid of business cares. The property itself is valuable, as a result of conscientious "plowing in" of earnings instead of taking and spending quick profits. But the most noteworthy thing about the transaction is the sum allowed for "good will." That item is said to be fixed at not less than $50,000,000.

"The evil that men do lives after them; The good is oft interred with their bones," said one of Shakespeare's pessimistic characters. In this case, the good done by two poor but gifted mechanics lives after them, and has got itself capitalized at a sum they would have thought fabulous.

It is said to be the record, so far, for valuation of good will, at least in the automobile industry. But it may soon be equalled or surpassed. The time has come when reputation, assiduously cultivated by merit and legitimate advertising, is one of the biggest assets of very big business concern.

"A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and loving favor than silver and gold," wrote Solomon. But in the modern business world, a good name brings riches.

Worth While Verse

THE WANDERING MEN

They cannot learn their lessons here,
The little, troubled, wandering men;
Nor ever find the pathway clear
That seeks again

Those far and fairest things of earth
Whose memories yet can trouble so,
Their flickering lives so little worth
They only know

Their ways are set with ghosts and gleams
Of the dead years whose buried days
Snare them again in drifting dreams
That mix and maze

Their lonely, loveless lives and lead
Them back to wayward wanderings,
Ashamed to own their chiefest need
These dear, dead things—

The loom of hills, blue of deep lakes
And the gay gleam of ladies' eyes
Dumb and distraught for old loves' sakes,
Sick and unwise.

They tread these thronging streets of ours,
The little, troubled, wandering men,
Living those old and mighty hours
Time and again.

Now a funny thing happened when Snitcher Snatch put a grain of magic snuff on everybody's nose.

Nancy sneezed and Nick sneezed and Mister Whizz sneezed and Mayor Snoozelord sneezed and Forty Winks sneezed and the policeman sneezed and everybody in Snoozer Town sneezed, until all the houses rocked on their foundations.

And the aeroplane was lifted up into the air as though a cyclone had struck it—and carried far, far away.

"Aha!" cried Snitcher Snatch. "Now these people can't come after me. I'll get the aeroplane myself, and fly to the next place."

So he tucked the magic snuff box into his pocket and ran after the aeroplane and when he had found it he jumped in and flew away to the next place, which happened to be Daddy Gander Town.

By this time Mister Whizz and the Twins were wide awake.

"This is a silly place," cried Mister Whizz. "We will all turn into Snoozers if we stay here. Come along, children."

So the Twins and the fairman left Snoozer Town and went to find their aeroplane.

But lo and behold, it was gone! "Now where do you suppose it is?" cried Mister Whizz. "I left it right here by this telegraph pole."

"I know!" called an old crow. "A terrible gust of wind came from Snoozer Town and blew it away. It sounded like a hundred sneezes."

"That's exactly what it was!" exclaimed Mister Whizz. "Children, we have sneezed our aeroplane away. Now we'll have to do some sprinting and catch up with it."

"Someone else was trying to catch up with it, too," said the crow. "A queer fellow with a long nose and a pair of crooked legs. I heard him say that if he found it, he was going to fly to Daddy Gander Town."

"You are a wide-awake fellow, I am sure," said Mister Whizz. "And we are ever and ever so much obliged. Do you know where Daddy Gander Town is?"

"I've heard people say that it is ten miles as the crow flies," said the crow. "But I don't know what that means."

"Where do you fly?" asked Mister Whizz.

"I fly from one corn-field to another," said the crow. "The next corn-field is north by north-east on a clear day."

"Could you take us there?" asked Mister Whizz.

"Where? To the corn-field?" asked the crow.

"No, to Daddy Gander Land," said Mister Whizz. "We'll pay you."

"All right," said the crow. "But you'll have to pay me in corn. I charge two corn-grains apiece."

"I haven't a corn-grain about me," said Mister Whizz.

"Then you'll have to walk," cawed the crow as he flew away. "Magic is just as good."

Mister Whizz cheerfully, "We'll get there some way, children."

Foreign Securities Tax

Although the matter has had much publicity, there is still lack of understanding and misunderstanding about the constitutional amendment adopted by a vote of the people last November, covering "foreign" securities and solvent credits.

Pursuant to this constitutional amendment the legislature has passed and the governor has signed the Breed-West bill, which provides that all notes, debentures, shares of capital stock, bonds, mortgages or deeds of trust based upon property outside of California, and all solvent credits based upon property outside of or within the state, shall be assessed to residents of California at 7 per cent of the full cash value thereof, instead of 100 per cent of the full cash value, as the law formerly stood.

Under the new law a person who owns $1000 worth of stocks or bonds in a New York corporation, for example, or a $1000 mortgage on Iowa property, and who is a resident, will pay the prevailing county tax rate on only a $70 valuation instead of on a $1000 valuation, as heretofore. The new tax rate will average, taking into consideration the existing rates in all counties, a little less than 5 mills on the dollar.

It is estimated by the State Board of Equalization, that there is five billion dollars' worth of such property concealed within the state, much of which, under the new law, will be voluntarily declared for taxation, thereby augmenting the municipal and county revenues by several million dollars.

With the consequent lightning to that extent, of the burden on other classes of property. The Board of equalization estimates, from the volume of correspondence which it has received, that thousands of people living in California who have avoided establishing their legal residence in the state, because of the double taxation on intangible property, will now become residents of California, identify themselves with its community life and add immeasurably to its civic and economic upbuilding.

The enactment of this law once and for all dispels the false propaganda and distorted version relative to the law which has been spread throughout the country, to the effect that California was enacting a law which in its application would put a tax on tourists and non-residents, and tax property now exempt from taxation. The facts are exactly the reverse. It is anticipated that countless tourists and others now living in California, who have not acquired legal residence, will now do so and thus reap the advantages of the new law, which is more just than that of any other state in the Union.

But it should be clearly understood that this law in no sense affects exemption from taxation of any form of property. It simply corrects an unfortunate condition of DOUBLE taxation. It assesses the tangible property at a rate that will make it bear the same proportion of ultimate tax that real property now bears.

NO. 4—OFF TO DADDY GANDER TOWN
